Where imagination turns into reality

ABOUT ME

I am a results-driven freelance marketing specialist with over 8 years of experience helping businesses grow their online presence, develop effective campaigns, and achieve their sales goals.

I have worked with various industries, including health and wellness, beauty, retail, education, and more. My expertise spans across digital marketing, social media strategy, content creation, web development, SEO, and brand development.

EDUCATIONAL HISTORY

I hold an Associate of Arts degree from the College of Southern Nevada, where I built a strong foundation in communication and creative thinking. To further specialize in the digital space, I earned the Google Digital Marketing & E-commerce Certificate and completed courses like Attract and Engage Customers with Digital Marketing. Additionally, I am IC3 certified through Certiport, showcasing my proficiency in essential computer and digital skills, which complements my expertise in marketing and business development.
